To Mother and Dad–

A Happy Anniversary

With Love

Dear Mother & Dad

I talked with you, Mother this morning and I'm sorry that you won't be able to come, but of course, I don't blame you for wanting to be with Dad on your anniversary. I surely hope you have a happy day. This is the 27th isn't it? If you can find a way to come on up, please do, we would love to have you. We surely are looking forward to you & Dad coming the last weekend. The SMU Texas Tech game will be Sat. night.

We are fine, especially since Mac won his game. His team is the only undefeated, unscored on 7th grade team in the city. He only has 3 more games & of course, hopes to win those too.

We're looking forward to going to Malakoff because we haven't seen Joyce & Bill in 2 weeks. We hope to see Tommy Godwin play football Sat. night with Wharton against Navarro. We'll be glad to see Mama Pauer, Big Dad & Auntie. Bye for now. Let us hear from you. Again — Happy Anniversary

Mother and Dad, words can't express
The thoughts of love
and thankfulness
That come to you on your own day,
But hope this shows in some small way
How much it means,
the whole year through,
To have you both, and wish you too;
Just everything to make life glad
For such a wonderful
Mother and Dad.

With All Our Love,
Mac and Vivien

Kiss Each Other For Us.
